

Please Join Us!

Ladies,

It is exciting to anticipate how God will reveal Himself to us in the Bible studies this winter. Isn't it wonderful that we can't just walk in and out of the Word without being challenged by His commands, convicted by His exhortations, and encouraged by His promises? His Holy Spirit always works that beautiful sanctification in our hearts!

Therefore, before you sign up, ask God which study you should commit yourself to, and then wait for His leading. Pray for the leader, the rest of your group, and yourself. I believe that you will be blessed ... and give your sisters-in-the-Lord blessings too!

Visit the Women's Ministry table in the lobby to register for studies. Childcare is available at NCCC for the Thursday morning studies only.

Contact me, Patty Morwood, (683-8245 or misspattymha@gmail.com) or Lisa Davis (573-9594 or lisatd@cinci.rr.com) with questions.

Come study and fellowship with us!

Thursday Morning Studies

beginning January 21, 2010 at 9 a.m.

Esther: It's Tough Being a Woman

This study by Beth Moore looks at the Old Testament story of Esther as a profile in courage containing many modern parallels for today's woman. Peel back the layers of history and see how very contemporary and applicable the story of Esther is to our lives today. If you have ever felt inadequate, threatened or pushed into situations that seem overpowering, this is the study for you! It includes DVD sessions, a workbook, and discussion facilitated by Lisa Davis at NCCC.

Sweeter Than Chocolate: Sweet Words and Real Solutions from God's Book

In this inductive study of Psalm 119, journey through the Bible's greatest Psalm devoted to the theme of the Word of God. Discover insights, practical wisdom, and deep truths that will strengthen your walk and relationship with Jesus Christ. Patty Morwood leads this study at NCCC.

Knowing God

For three decades accolades have poured forth for J.I. Packer's timeless and always timely royal presentation of God's character. Paul counted all things loss for the excellence of knowing Christ; John wrote that all disciples would know eternal life in knowing God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; Packer writes simply, "Jesus satisfies." Come walk along the corridors leading to the very throne-room of heaven. Giving yourself to know Him is based on His promise to give Himself to you! Led by Kathy Toth at NCCC.

Tuesday Evening Study

beginning February 9, 2010 at 6:30 p.m.

Precept 1&2 Samuel: The Life of David

1 Samuel: From judges to kings, from the departure of God's glory to the assurance of His help, from inquiring of the Lord to inquiring of a medium -- this book of contrasts sets before us the importance of a life of obedience and how it's lived out in the midst of interpersonal conflicts. 2 Samuel: Watch a "man after God's own heart" ascend to the throne, then descend into sin. See how a covenant-keeping God turns a man from the worst sins to a victorious finish. Patty Morwood facilitates this study in her home (3288 S. Cove Ct., Landen) from 6:30-9 p.m.

Respectable Sins

Have Christians become so preoccupied with the major sins of our society that we have lost sight of our need to deal with our own more subtle sins? Jerry Bridges returns to his trademark theme of holiness and addresses a dozen clusters of specific "acceptable" sins that we tend to tolerate in ourselves - such as jealousy, anger, and pride. Mr. Bridges writes "from the trenches of his own battles with sin ... [and] offers a message of hope ... in the transforming grace of God as the means to overcome our subtle sins." Led by Kim Knight from 7-9 p.m. Location to be determined.
